Two Palestinians, including US citizen Saif Eddin Muslat and 23-year-old Muhammad Shalabi, were killed and at least 40 others injured in a settler attack on the town of Sinjil, north of Ramallah, on Friday.

Meanwhile, the UN Human Rights Office reported that 798 Palestinians waiting for aid in Gaza have been killed since late May, according to figures cited by Reuters.

Since October 7, 2023, Israel has killed 57,882 and injured 138,095 others, the majority of whom are women and children, according to the Palestinian Ministry of Health in Gaza.

Beit Hanoun’s Fury: How Gaza’s Obliterated Northern Town Defies Israeli Victory

PALESTINE CHRONICLE: This audacious operation, coupled with numerous others across both northern and southern Gaza, offered an undeniable truth: Israel’s utter inability to secure any segment of the Strip. This failure undermines its proclaimed intent to establish control over the genocide-stricken territory, seemingly as a prelude to forcibly displacing the entire population, first to Rafah in the south, and ultimately, towards Egypt.
